Special distribution paid on December 6, 2018, for five Wells Fargo Money Market Funds

A special distribution was declared and included in the dividend rate paid to shareholders on December 6, 2018, for the five Wells Fargo Money Market Funds listed below:

- Wells Fargo 100% Treasury Money Market Fund*
- Wells Fargo Government Money Market Fund*
- Wells Fargo Municipal Cash Management Money Market Fund
- Wells Fargo National Tax-Free Money Market Fund
- Wells Fargo Treasury Plus Money Market Fund*

Under Securities and Exchange Commission guidelines, if some or all of a distribution paid by a mutual fund is derived from a source other than net investment income, such as capital gains or paid-in capital, the fund is required to estimate the amount from each source and report it along with the distribution payment. To fulfill this requirement, the following information is being provided to direct-to-fund shareholders and affected firms, which will determine how to communicate the distribution information to their clients.

Details of the distribution are listed below for all affected share classes of the funds. These amounts are computed on a financial statement basis, are informational only, and do not affect a shareholder's income tax reporting. Information regarding the final tax character of distributions will be provided to shareholders on Form 1099.

Distributions comprising net investment income, capital gains, and paid-in capital were as follows:

Government money market funds

You could lose money by investing in the fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time.

*Floating NAV money market funds

You could lose money by investing in the fund. Because the share price of the fund will fluctuate, when you sell your shares they may be worth more or less than what you originally paid for them. The fund may impose a fee upon sale of your shares or may temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the fund's liquidity falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time.

Retail money market funds
